I think there is a longer piece floating around that gives more details on the Pyke alternative. Probably on the Restore the Delta website somewhere.

Hi Tom:
Isn't the Pyke alternative encompassed by the pdf attached to the incoming message from D. Nawi?
It seems like he's laying out an alternative in that document.

Mr. Pyke got some press for his BDCP alternative suggestion about 2 weeks ago. Here is his response to the "NRDC" alternative. For purposes of clarity, I suggest we refer to them as the Pyke alternative (and I don't have that one) and the NGO/Water Agency alternative.

Jerry, David,

The attached letter was mailed this morning. As always I would be happy to discuss. I hope that it was OK to quote Jerry on the cost of consultants – I know that you made a change for the better in that regard but I speak from experience when I say that most of not all consultants are whores!

Regards,

Bob
